

HORN LANE SEMI-INDEPENDENT ACCOMMODATION SERVICE

ABOUT HORN LANE

Horn Lane is a semi-independent accommodation service for young people located in Ealing open to referrals from all boroughs. It provides accommodation for up to 14 young people aged 16-25.

We focus on creating a safe, homely, and trauma informed environment with bespoke support. Our teams are dedicated to supporting young people into employment, education and training and to helping them to identify their goals and aspirations.

SERVICE HIGHLIGHTS

- Co-produced support and activities that reflect the young person's interests and background, promote life skills and opportunities to socialise.
- Person-centred and trauma-informed approach that embeds the principles of psychologically informed environments.
- Specialist support for Unaccompanied Asylum seekers.
- Access to phone translation services (please ask about additional staff languages).
- A short walk to Acton Mainline Elizabeth Line Station and North Acton Tube (Central Line).
- Each young person gets their own room.
- Support levels and living arrangements based on the young person's needs, e.g., two and four-bed flats.

A young person we supported said:

"Look Ahead was a big step to independence. I feel more resilient. I know I'm going to have up and down moments but it's about how I handle it."
